

Blackall-Tambo

Regional Council

Gifts and Benefits Policy

Policy Number: Admin 43	Effective Date:
Version Number: Two	Review Date:
Policy Compiled by: Director of Finance Corporate and Community Services
Policy Approved by: Director of Finance Corporate and Community Services

1. POLICY BACKGROUND

Councillors and Council employees hold positions of public trust and must carry out their duties impartially and with integrity. The provision of gifts and benefits to Councillors and employees can create perceptions of a conflict of interest and it is appropriate to question why they are offered and whether they should be accepted.

The Public Sector Ethics Act 1994, identifies the following four ethics principles as fundamental to the good public administration:

- Integrity and impartiality;
- Promoting the public good;
- Commitment to the system of government; and
- Accountability and transparency

This policy supports the Blackall-Tambo Regional Council's commitment to the above principles, and the following local government principles as provided under section 4 of the Local Government Act 2009:

- Transparent and effective processes, and decision-making in the public interest;
- Good governance of, and by, local government; and
- Ethical and legal behaviour of Councillors and local government employees and councillor advisors.

Policy Number: Admin 43	Version number: Two Initial Date of Adoption – 21.8.2019	Adopted by Blackall-Tambo Regional Council	Page 1 of 6
-------------------------	---	---	-------------

This policy aims to minimize the risk of Councillors and employees being exposed to an actual or perceived conflict of interest associated with benefits or gifts offered in the course of their official duties.

The requirements of this policy are in addition to the legislative obligations of Councillors and Senior Executives with respect to individual register of interests as prescribed in Part 5 of Chapter 8 of the Local Government Regulation 2012 and the legislative obligations of Councillors prescribed by the Local Government Electoral Act 2011.

2. COUNCIL POLICY

It is not appropriate for Councillors or employees to be offered or to accept gift or benefits that affect, may be likely to affect or could reasonably be perceived to affect, the independent and impartial performance of their official duties.

Councillors and employees must not ask for or encourage the giving of any form of gift or benefit in connection with the performance of official duties.

3. ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS OR BENEFITS

As a general guide, if a Councillor or employee is offered a gift, he/she should put themselves in the position of the person offering the gift and consider why the gift is being given and whether acceptance is appropriate.

Each type of gift or benefit carries with it different risks that should be considered when deciding whether or not acceptance is appropriate. It is important to consider the following:

1. Relevant legislation;
2. Why the offer of a gift or benefit was made;
3. The value and type of the gift/benefit (with higher value gifts/benefits warranting increased scrutiny); and
4. The likely public perception of acceptance.

Circumstances where the acceptance of a gift or benefit is not appropriate.

Pursuant to s199(2) of the Local Government Act 2009, a local government employee must not ask for, or accept, a fee or other benefit for doing something as a local government employee. However this provision does not apply to a benefit of nominal value.

Councillors and employees must not accept a gift and/or benefit irrespective of its value, if any of the following apply:

- If is considered as a gift of influence – ie that it is seen, or may be seen, to affect the performance of the recipient’s official duties, or otherwise influence, or be seen to influence, the decision-making or behaviour of the recipient;

- The donor or any reasonable observer would interpret that the recipient may be under an obligation to the donor as a result of receiving the gift;
- It is not offered openly; or
- It is an offer of money.

Note: Cash is excluded and should not be accepted under any circumstances.

Any gifts or benefits offered in the above circumstances must be reported immediately:

- To the CEO for employees
- To the Mayor for Councillors and CEO

If unsure, Councillors and employees should decline offers of gifts or benefits courteously by explaining the acceptance would be against Council policy.

Circumstances where it may be appropriate to accept a gift.

Acceptance of a gift or benefit may be considered appropriate if it complies with the following principles:

- It does not influence, or have the potential or perceived potential to influence, in any way so as to compromise, or appear to compromise, the integrity and impartiality of the percipient, or to create a conflict of interest, or perception of a conflict of interest.
- It is not related to advice or decisions about (but not limited to):
 - Granting licences;
 - Inspecting and regulating businesses;
 - Granting of approvals;
 - Letting of contracts;
 - The provision of Council services;
 - The provision of a Council grant.

The following gifts are considered low risk and can generally be accepted:

- Gifts of nominal value made in gratitude for specific tasks or performance e.g. a small personal gift to an employee or Councillor for speaking at an official function;
- Low value corporate gifts made as a marketing/sponsor initiative e.g. mass-produced mementoes at a professional development conference;
- Ceremonial/symbolic gifts from visiting organisation provided to Council as an organisation (as opposed to an individual employee or Councillor) to be retained by the organisation e.g. plaque of appreciation or memento from place of origin.

Appropriate gifts offered to employees can only be accepted and utilised by the individual recipient if it is not contrary to the public interest and further, if it is approved by the employee's relevant Director/Manager or the CEO. Other available options for recipients to consider include surrendering the gift for disposal (donation to a charity) or for the use of the wider organisation.

Gifts made to the organisation remain the property of the organisation and not individual Councillors or employees.

4. DECLARING AND REPORTING OF GIFTS AND BENEFITS ON COUNCIL’S GIFT REGISTER

Gifts and Benefits Register

Council’s Gift and Benefits Register is maintained by staff from the Office of the CEO. The Register will record the following details of all reportable gifts and benefits under this Policy:

- The date the gift was offered;
- The date the notification was made;
- The recipient and donor;
- Estimated fair market value;
- Determination on how the gift was dealt with – e.g. disposal by donation to charity, use by the organisation, retention of the gift for personal use by the individual recipient, or non-acceptance, and who authorised that decision.

Recording threshold for employees and the organisation

Any appropriate gift and/or benefit received by employees or the organisation that has an estimated value of $100 or more must be recorded in Council’s Gifts and Benefits Register via the Office of the CEO within 30 days of acceptance.

Recording threshold for Councillors

Any gift received by a Councillor that is required to be recorded on a Councillor’s individual Register of Interest pursuant to the Local Government Regulation 2012 (gifts totaling more than $500 or more), must also be noted on Council’s Gifts and Benefits Register. Upon updating their Register of Interests, Councillors are requested to notify the Office of the CEO so that the Council’s Gifts and Benefits Register can be updated.

Register of Interests

In accordance with the requirements of the Local Government Act 2009 and the Local Government Regulation 2012, Councillors and Senior Contract Employees must also ensure that any gifts and/or sponsored hospitality benefits received are included in their individual Register of Interests.

Multiple gifts and/or benefits and cumulative value

If multiple gifts and/or benefits are accepted from the same provider or on behalf of the same organisation and the cumulative value is more than $100 (for employees) or $500 (for Councillors), then each gift and/or benefit must be reported on the register once the relevant threshold is reached or is considered likely to be reached in the future.

Recording of gifts/and or benefits received below the value thresholds and gifts not accepted

Whilst not required under this Policy, a Councillor or employee may record the acceptance of a gift and/or benefit estimated below the aforementioned value recording thresholds on Council’s Gifts and Benefits Register should they wish to do so, or if instructed by the CEO or relevant Director/Manager.

Offers of gifts and/or benefits that are not accepted may also be entered on the register for transparency and record keeping purposes.

5. DEFINITIONS

Conflict of Interest occurs when a Councillor or employee’s private interests interfere, or appear to interfere, with the duty to act impartially and in the public interest.

Actual conflict of interest involves a direct conflict between a Councillor or employee current duties and responsibilities and their existing private interests.

Perceived (or apparent) conflict of interests occur where it could be perceived by others that a public official’s private interests could improperly influence the performance of their public duties – whether or not this is in fact the case.

Donor refers to the person or organisation making the offer of a gift/benefit to Council, a Councillor or Council Employee.

Gifts and benefits refer to items given and received in the course of official duties and include tangible (of lasting value) and intangible (of no lasting value) items. The Local Government Regulation 2012 defines a gift as:

- (a) The transfer of money, the property or other benefit –
 - (i) Without consideration; or
 - (ii) For a consideration substantially less than full consideration; or
- (b) A loan of money or other property made on a permanent or indefinite basis.

Examples of a gift include – a gift voucher, entertainment, hospitality (such as meals), travel, goods, event tickets, lucky door prizes at events paid for by Council, and prizes/awards received in connection with Council duties.

Examples of a benefit include – a non-tangible item of value such as a new job or promotion, preferential treatment or access to confidential information.

Nominal value for the purpose of this policy is considered to be anything up to $100.

Public perception means the perception of a fair-minded person in possession of the relevant facts.

Recipient means the Councillor or Employee who has been offered the gift/benefit.

Value refers to the estimated reasonable retail value of a gift/benefit.

6. RELEVANT LEGISLATION AND POLICIES

Local Government Act 2009

Local Government Regulation 2012

Public Sector Ethics Act 1994

Crime and Corruption Act 2001

Local Government Electoral Act 2011

Councillors Code of Conduct Procedure

Employee Code of Conduct

Fraud Control Policy

7. RECORDS

When completed and approved the original, signed hard copy of the policy is filed in the Master File.

Electronic copies are saved in the appropriately labelled folder in Magiq.

8. REVIEW TRIGGER

This Policy is to be reviewed on changes to legislation.